Report Says Red Campaign Takes Aim at CIA and FBI

Washington (AP)—The Central Intelligence Agency is circulating among an inner group of congressmen a report describing a Soviet propaganda campaign aimed at the CIA but also striking at the FBI.

The activity, says the CIA report, is chiefly planned and directed by a special "department of disinformation" established in the KGB, the Soviet state security service.

The CIA says the KGB department was set up by former Premier Nikita Khrushchev, and is headed by Gen. Ivan Ivanovich Agayants, "a senior, professional intelligence officer with long experience and well-developed agent and political contacts in Western Europe."

The objective of the campaign, the report states, "is to achieve the destruction, breakup and neutralization of CIA" with an ultimate goal "to isolate and destroy what the KGB designates as 'glavni vrag' (main enemy), the United States."

"By striking at CIA," the report said, "the attack also centers on the intelligence community with particular thrust against the FBI and Mr. J. Edgar Hoover." Hoover is director of the FBI.

The CIA, often under attack both at home and abroad for some of its reported operations in the cold war, issued the report to members of Congress charged with keeping an eye on its operations.
